

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

READ THE SENTENCES

Set A

1. He's funny, but Joan didn't laugh.
2. We'll see if there's a great place to park.
3. I'm glad you're happy and aren't sad.
4. He'll either be here by noon, or he isn't coming.
5. She'll find out if they'll be in second place.
6. It certainly wasn't the worst game that she'll play.

Set B

1. Kim's first in line, but who's second?
2. It's certainly the worst storm she's seen.
3. Mom doesn't laugh when the room isn't clean.
4. He'll be a great help if the work hasn't been done.
5. Here's when I'll have to know if you're staying with us.
6. There's either juice or milk that's here to drink.

Set C

1. The great big hill wasn't easy to climb up, and it can't be hard to get down.
2. They'll either go on a picnic, or I'll meet them at the zoo on Friday.
3. I'm sure you'll laugh when you see how funny the show is.
4. It's certainly the worst trip that we'll ever make.
5. She's a great friend, when I don't know what to do.
6. That's the second letter that he's written to his pen pal in China.